

"I always design with YOU in Mind."
Specializing in Brochure Websites.

I offer Creative and Effective brochure websites for the small business, home based business and the artist/crafter. I believe that your personality is of great importance when creating your online presence via: Website is of the utmost importance in today's business model.

Your personality, your information and images are all applied to creating a site that is representative of you and your products or services. I offer personalized design and service.

THE PROCESS... First step is always a consultation at $75.00, but free with contract for a website.

- The more information you can supply the easier it is for me to make a determine as to the cost and timing of your site.
- I will look at your information, your products and or services, the purpose of your site, such as.. a brand, blog, community, content, corporate, gallery information, personal, non-profit or so on.
- Many of the sites I create are considered an online brochure with information and content.
- A 50% deposit is required start your site.
- Most Brochure sites I can get up and running within a very short period of time, some being only 48-72 hours, often it will take up to a week to two weeks, delays are usually due to waiting on content. The more you get to me the fast it goes.
- I look at each and every site as an individual picture of your personality, products and services. It can be done in stages, meaning, a couple pages at a time which many small businesses enjoy. On a corporate site, you would have all your content and branding materials which I would implement giving just what you are looking for in a professional site.
- If you would like to keep you Social Media updated, I can give you special prices for retaining my service for regular postings.

Are you looking for a Brochure(information) site, A Gallery site, or A Shopping site? I can design something that is just for you and your products and services.

Forms of payment: Cash, Check and if need be, paypal

I look forward to assisting you in your Online endeavors. No job is too small or too big! And remember.....

If you are not online, you will be left behind!
